Introduction

The 2013 Victorian Cherry Conference is open to all Cherry Growers and those interested in supporting the Cherry Industry.

The Conference has been designed to learn from the past season and be ready to change and adapt to the future, embracing new concepts, technologies and methodologies which can then be implemented on farm.

The Conference will be a combined seminar, tradeshow & field day.

Registration covers all the above including meals on the day but does not include the Conference Dinner.

Key Note Speaker

Hugh Dendy

Hugh Dendy, a cherry grower in both British Columbia and New Zealand, a favourite speaker with growers at international conferences. He learns about cherries faster than most of us by having two cherry seasons a year.

Don't miss this opportunity to hear Hugh.
